INDEX TO VOLUME 43

Page numbers indicate the month of issue as follows: September, 1-64; October, 65-128; November, 129-192; December, 193-256; January, 257-320; February, 321-384; March, 385-448; April, 449-512; May, 513-576.

"Ability Grouping in English," by Robert L. Kelly, 547

"Academic Freedom and the Third Reich," by Lewis L. Beall," 483

"Administrative Role in Developing a Middle School, The," by James Di Virgilio, 103

"Affair at South Overshoe, The," by Alvin W. Howard, 19

Administrators, school: achieving public support for the school budget, 458; administrative role in developing a middle school, 103; advice to principals and school administrators based on Machiavelli's The Prince, 519; changing teacher-behavior through a technique called "I-B-F Supervision," 180; characteristics of the democratic administrator, 478; classification of educators into two divergent groups—pedagogians or anarchists, 527; commitment of a principal to his faculty, 157; conditions for coequality between teacher and principal, 488; department heads still useful, 264; factors utilized to bring about flexible scheduling in a junior high school, 220; failure to support creative teachers, 150; faults of personnel recruitment procedures in education, 328; function of principal's job as seen through the eyes of teachers, 172; future position divided into senior school administrator and senior educator, 79; guide to lawful disciplinary measures and treatment of juvenile delinquents, 131; guidelines on how to know your community, 55; instructional leadership should be primary responsibility of junior high school principal, 198; "micro-teaching"—a supervisory program for helping new teachers, 301; a model for policy formulation which involves teachers meaningfully, 259; must involve staff in curriculum improvement, 539; role in team teaching, 403; role of the superintendent in teacher negotiations, 533; satire on results of principal's poor administration, 19; should involve the students in educational innovations, 543; the superintendent should function as negotiator and as chief executive officer for the school board, 294; survey of teacher credentials to determine item preferences of recruiters, 474; use of computing and data processing in support of educational administration, 456; using interaction analysis to improve classroom instruction, 555; what to do if the voice on the phone says there's a bomb in the building, 99

Adult education, 121

Aides, teacher: description of various ways aides can be used, 504; instructing students in reading, 373; "outside" experts participate in the classroom teaching process, 494; team teaching facilitates use of teacher aides, 22; tutors for underachievers in reading and writing, 236

Aids, audio-visual: description of an electronic environmental learning center, 14; "Project: Homespun"—slide and tape narration of Amish life undertaken by teachers, 282; recording field trips on colored slides, 54; use of computers in education, 135; utilization of computers and data processing equipment in education, 455; see also "Instructional Media" and Media

Alspaugh, John W., on "Utilization of Computing and Data Processing in Education," 455

Ames, Wilbur S., on "Reading Programs," 515

"Anatomy of Loyalty," by Stanley W. Niehaus, 283

Andree, Robert G., on "Delinqients and the Law," 131

Anker, Walter, says, "Back to First Principles," 98

Armstrong, Robert L., on "Research in Name Only," 298

Attendance taking, a modern approach to, 106

"Availability and Usefulness of Occupational Materials," by Robert R. Reilley, 439

Aven, Samuel D. (coauthor), gives "Predictions of Student Teaching Ratings," 105

"Back to First Principles," says Walter Anker, 98

Bahr, Jerome, says, "Non-Professional Teachers Enliven the Subject Matter," 494

Barnard, Robert J., asks, "World History: Are Textbooks Needed?" 117

"Basic Education Resource Centers for Adults," by Leo J. Cantelope, 121

Bates, Devon A. (coauthor), on "Politics and Youth—Attitudes of Young Americans," 396

Battista, F. Thomas, on "Bomb in the Building!" 99

Bauer, George, on "World Beyond the Classroom," 371

Beall, Lewis L., on "Academic Freedom and the Third Reich," 483

Benka, Gerald, on "Coaching Techniques Applied to the Classroom," 212

Benson, Norman (coauthor), on "Humanities: Planning Comes First," 82

"Better Teacher Utilization," by Jody L. Stevens, 504

Board of education: as a key to knowing the community, 56; negotiating with teachers, 89; new role for, 81; the superintendent of schools should be the board's chief representative in all collective negotiation procedures, 294; relationship to teachers in general and professional negotiations in particular, 358

Bodnarchuk, Steve, says, "Improve through Follow-Up," 30; on "Factors Influencing College Selection," 427

"Bomb in the Building!" by F. Thomas Battista, 99

"Book Reviews," 60, 124, 186, 253, 315, 378, 442, 507, 564

"Born Stubborn," poem by Dick Hayman, 189

Bossone, Richard M., on "A Junior College Remedial Program," 364

Brand, Sister Marian Frances, poem, "Understatements: Arlington Cemetery," 78; poem, "High Stakes: UN," 197

Brimm, R. P., on "Improving the Selection of Course Electives," 417

Briscoe, Cecil D., describes "A Reading Program," 373

Brod, Pearl, on "The Middle School in Practice," 530
Budget, school, achieving public support for, 458
Buethe, Chris, on "Testing, Testing . . 1 . . 2 . . 3," 536
"Building Better Music Audiences," by Bruce R. Purrington, 497
Busch, Richard R., on "Student Response to Grouping," 153

Callaghan, Brian, on "Social Studies: The Flexible Content Approach," 368
Cantelope, Leo J., on "Basic Education Resource Centers for Adults," 121
Carmical, LaVerne, on "School Guidance: Perspective, Purpose, and Performance," 223
Carter, Boyd (coauthor), on "How Teachers See Their Principals," 172
Castiglione, Lawrence (coauthor), on "Teacher Credentials: Item Preferences of Recruiters," 474
"Characteristics for Innovation," by Herbert J. Eibler, 523
"Characteristics of the Democratic Administrator," by Arnold Hillman, 478
Charney, Nicolas, on "Green Blackboards . . . the Twenty Year Switch," 511
Chaves, Arthur G., asks, "Next Step: A Junior Middle School?" 354
Check, John F., on "Retention Power: Recall Value after One Semester," 158; on "Contract Signing," 411
Chrisp, Marvin (coauthor), gives "Predictions of Student Teaching Ratings," 105
Citizenship, students need practice in the three R's of citizenship—rights, responsiveness, and responsibility, 355
"Citizenship Education," by Karl J. Weimer, 355
Civil rights, schools accused of middle-class imperialism, 469
"Classical Mythology: A Correlative Factor in English," by Ernest C. Goodsite, Jr., 49
Climo, James, on "Pass/Fail at Longmeadow," 341
Cloyd, Nina M., on "Modular Scheduling: Some Implications," 300
Coaching, see Sports
"Coaching Techniques Applied to the Classroom," by Gerald Benka, 212
Cohen, Hazel, on "Words: An On-Going Program," 424
College: countering educational disorder through a junior college remedial program, 364; factors influencing college selection, 427; universities should emulate large corporation research and development practices, 3
Collins, Harold W. (coauthor), on "Strike or Sanction? What Future Teachers Favor," 27
Computers, use of in education, 135, 455
"Computers in Education," by Donald K. Sharpes, 135
"Conditions for Coequality," by Harvey Goldman, 488
"Contemporary Concerns for the Secondary School," by John Turano and Eugene T. Kelly, 387
"Contract Negotiations: What Benefits Have Been Gained?" asks Joseph C. Tucker, 89
"Contract Signing," by John F. Check, 411
Contracts: benefits gained through collective contract negotiations, 89; a checklist to guide teacher contract signing, 411; see also Negotiation, Strikes
Cooper, Davis, on "Teaching the Disadvantaged," 444
Cooper, James M. (coauthor), on "Helping New Teachers Focus on Behavioral Change," 301
Counseling: counselor directs VIEW: Vocational Interest Emphasis Week, to help students become more aware of their vocational goals, 473; description of the counselor who applies existentialism to modern counseling practices, 351; guidance director describes follow-up program of post high school students, 30; guidance staff improves selection of course electives through parent-pupil-teacher conferences, 417; a rationale for an effective school guidance program, 223; a rationale for an effective school guidance program, 223; student themes enable English teacher to counsel students and practice preventive therapy, 225; study on the availability and usefulness of occupational materials, 439
"'Course Achievement' Test, The," by John F. Magill, Jr., 487
Creason, Frank (coauthor), on "Developing More and Better In-Service Programs," 113
"Creative Teachers: Encouraged or Discouraged?" asks Robert O. Hahn, 150
Creativity: are creative teachers encouraged, 150; identifying and working with creative students, 146
Criscuolo, Nicholas P., on "Encouraging the Reading Habit Among Adolescents," 546
Cuony, Edward R., on "The Shadow Study," 312
Current events, suggestions for teaching, 206
Curriculum: advantages of an "intensive" summer school program, 33; are "average" students "forgotten"? 32; inculcation of multi-media into the curriculum, 14; in-service education involves teachers in curricular study and improvement, 113; national survey on teaching about the U. S. system of education, 67; on revising social studies, 248; satire on state imposition of required courses, 35; on setting up an experimental humanities program, 82; staff involvement essential if curriculum improvement is to become a reality, 539; students should be involved in curriculum innovations, 543; teaching about proper use of leisure time, 98; team teaching as a first step toward interdisciplinary teaching, 406; why are some faculties more receptive to curricular innovation and change than others, 523

Darling, Glenn H., says, "The Simple Truth Is . . .," 395
Davidson, Aarno, poem, "Saint or Sorcerer?" 434
"Delinquents and the Law," by Robert G. Andree, 131
Dennis, Lawrence (coauthor), on "Humanities: Planning Comes First," 82
"Department Head in the Large Senior High School, The," by Reho F. Thorum, 264
"Deriving Valid Standards," by S. Samuel Shermis, 254
"Design for Independent Study, A," by William T. Plunkett, 94
Dettre, John R., on "Pride of Workmanship," 323
"Developing More and Better In-Service Programs," by Albert G. Leep, Frank Creason, and Donald L. Schilson, 113
DeVries, Ted (coauthor), on "How Teachers See Their Principals," 172
"Dial-a-Math," by Richard W. Lane and Roger W. Hancher, 26
Disadvantaged, teaching relevant literature to, 444

Discipline, the "teaching" of, helping students become self-disciplined, 560
Di Virgilio, James, on "The Administrative Role in Developing a Middle School," 103
"Do Teachers Really Want Freedom?" asks E. Keith Rigdon, 102
"Do You Believe in Lesson Plans?" asks Sister Elizabeth Heese, 492
Doak, E. Dale, on "Myths in Education," 288
Donelson, Kenneth L., on "Playing the Game in English Teaching," 479
Dorman, Ruth, on "The Frustration of Library Assignments," 93
Driver education, 62
Dropkin, Stan (coauthor), on "Teacher Credentials: Item Preferences of Recruiters," 474
"Dropout, The: Early Adolescent Education," by Harlan Stuckwisch, 216
Dropouts: guidance follow-up program involves dropouts, 30; the junior high school should improve its holding power over students and thereby reduce dropouts, 216; a part of the intellectual elite are "hippies," societal dropouts, 568; schools should train students for the less skilled jobs, 164

"Early Thaw," poem by Sister Sonia Gernes, 518
Economics: on developing a suitable course of study in economics, 173; educators should be aware of the economic inducement surrounding our activities, 428
Education: achieving public support for, 458; are middle-class values being imposed upon lower-class students, 469; a basic education resource center for adults, 121; a brief look at the educational scene ten years after "Sputnik," 568; citizenship skill-building activities needed in schools, 355; classification of educators into pedagogians or anarchists, 527; computers in education, 135, 455; contemporary concerns in, 387; description of educational experiences outside the classroom which bring people together, 371; developing "pride of workmanship" in education, 323; discussion of national assessment, 451; "eggheads" on education, 327; humanism in, 195; impact of negotiations upon public education, 358; is academic freedom threatened in the U. S., 483; myths in, 288; oversimplification causes educational errors, 395; remedial, in junior college, 364; teaching about the U. S. system of education, 67
Eibler, Herbert J., gives "Characteristics for Innovation," 523
Electives, improving selection of through a system of parent-pupil-teacher conferences, 417
Ely, Laurence E., on "The Principal: A Machiavellian Guide for School Administrators," 519
"Encouraging the Reading Habit Among Adolescents," by Nicholas P. Criscuolo, 546
English: ability grouping in English, 547; an approach to teaching vocabulary and diction, 424; assignment of themes enables teacher to counsel students, 225; bibliographic listing of books in English education, 565; instructor of English methods returns to teaching high school English, 463; method of teaching freshman English using "fresh" literature, 316; project of collecting writers' autographs, 542; student response to grouping in a General English class, 153; a study of classical mythology enhances the English program, 49; suggestions on teaching relevant literature to the disadvantaged, 444; teacher's slides of Glacier National Park provide an inspiration for creative writing, 410; two-way communication should be stressed in teaching English, a humanizing subject, 479; why don't we say what we mean, 202; see also Reading
Environmental learning center, 14
"Everyone Has a Sky," by Robert N. Kratz, 349
"Existential School Counselor, The," by Gerald J. Pine, 351
Existentialism, applied in counseling, 351
"Experiencing What It Means To Be Free," by Helen Hollander, 125

"Factors Influencing College Selection," by Steve Bodnarchuk, 427
"Faculty Within, The," poem by Norman H. Russell, 145
Fea, Henry R., on "Team Teaching: Psychological Implications," 177
Feldvebel, Alexander M., on "Teacher Satisfaction," 44
Field trips, recorded on colored slides, 54
Flanagan, John C., on "Project Plan," 63
Flaumenhaft, A. S., on "Language Barriers Down," 202
"Forgotten One, The?" by Jerry J. Herman, 32
"Fostering Classroom Creativity," by Hilmar Wagner, 146
Freedman, Philip I., on "Middle Class Values—Lower Class Rights, 469
Freese, Mathias, asks, "Is Content Enough?" 184
Frerichs, Allen H., gives "A Look at Adolescent Music," 435; on "Sputnik: A Decade Later," 568
Frey, Sherman H., on "Policy Formulation: A Plan Involving Teachers," 259
"Frustration of Library Assignments, The," by Ruth Dorman, 93
Funaro, George J., on "Team Teaching: The Danger and the Promise," 401

Galford, Justin B. (coauthor), on "School Social Events," 110
Garner, Merl F. (coauthor), on "A Junior High School Intramural Program," 52
Gernes, Sister Sonia, poem, "Poem in the Rain," 420; poem, "Early Thaw," 518
Gilliom, M. Eugene, on "Rejuvenating Current Events," 206
Goldman, Harvey, gives "Conditions for Coequality," 488
Goldstein, William, on "Team Planning: Heart Transplant in Teaching," 272
"Good Scholarship: Do Students Really Care?" asks Karen Parrish and Gilbert R. Weldy, 275
Good, Thomas L. (coauthor), on "Politics and Youth—Attitudes of Young Americans," 396
Goodsite, Ernest C., Jr., on "Classical Mythology: A Correlative Factor in English," 49
Gordon, Ted, editor of "Tricks of the Trade," 58, 252
Gorton, Richard A., on "Parental Resistance to Modular Scheduling," 392
Grading: description of an experimental high school pass/fail plan, 341; grading students in ability-grouped classes, 550; guidelines for better grading, 33; on making marks meaningful, 338; study on the grading practices in Nebraska secondary schools, 335
"Grading Practices in Nebraska," by Udo H. Jansen, 335

Graves, Madeline, says, "Hail and Farewell! Testimony of a Teacher's Testimonial," 561
"Green Blackboards . . . the Twenty Year Switch," by Nicolas Charney, 511
Grouping: ability grouping in English, 547; ability grouping results in educational elite, a part of which are the "hippies," 568; how students feel about placement into special classes, 153; policies governing grading of "ability grouped" classes, 336
"Guide for Converting Test Scores, A," by James F. McNamara and Erma D. Keyes, 432
"Guide for Those Teaching 'Out of Their Fields,' A," by Jack E. Miller, 213
"Guidelines for Better Grading," by Richard Kindsvatter, 331

Hahn, Robert O., asks, "Creative Teachers: Encouraged or Discouraged?" 150
"Hail and Farewell! Testimony of a Teacher's Testimonial," by Madeline Graves, 561
Hake, Susan M., on "Of Gizmos and Gadgetry," 190
Hancher, Roger W. (coauthor), on "Dial-a-Math," 26
Hansen, John H. (coauthor), says, "The Sound of Music in the Schools Is Muffled," 244
Harris, Sydney J., says, "Let's Ban Driver Education?" 62
Haught, Evelyn H., on "Themes Therapeutic," 225
Hayman, Dick, poem, "Naming Nemesis," 112; poem, "Born Stubborn," 189
Heese, Sister Elizabeth, asks, "Do You Believe in Lesson Plans?" 492
"Helping New Teachers Focus on Behavioral Change," by James M. Cooper and Earl Seidman, 301
Hendrickson, Grant, gives "A Modern Approach to Attendance Taking," 106
Herman, Jerry J., on "The Forgotten One?" 32
"'Hey, That's Me!': A Relevant Course," by H. Walter Langhorst and John L. Sullivan, 203
"High Stakes: UN," Poem by Sister Marian Frances Brand, 197
Hill, William M., on "I-B-F Supervision," 180
Hillman, Arnold, gives "Characteristics of the Democratic Administrator," 478
"Hippies," 568
Hirst, Wilma E., asks, "Vocational Education: Secondary School's Underdog?" 162
History: a process oriented learning approach to U.S. history, 230; teaching an intensive American history course in summer school, 33; textbooks not needed for teaching world history, 117
Hollander, Helen, on "Experiencing What It Means to be Free," 125
Holt, Milford O., on "Reading to Learn," 267
Homework, pupils' views on, as a help in understanding content materials, 413
"Homework and Study Habits," by Robert E. Leibert, 413
"How Should Economics Be Taught?" asks Joseph Wolfson and I. I. Olicker, 173
"How Teachers See Their Principals," by Ted DeVries and Boyd Carter, 172
Howard, Alvin W., on "The Affair at South Overshoe," 19
"Human Dimension in Foreign Language Instruction," by Lois B. Thomas, 425
"Humanism in Education," by George R. Small, 195
Humanities: education must be commited to eradicate man's inhumanity toward man, 195; essentials for a humanities course, 508; on setting up an experimental humanities program, 82
"Humanities: Planning Comes First," by Norman Benson and Lawrence Dennis, 82
"Humanities Today, The," 62, 125, 188, 316, 380, 444, 508, 565
Hurd, Douglas F. (coauthor), on "Project: Homespun," 282

"I-B-F Supervision," by William M. Hill, 180
"Impact of Negotiations Upon Public Education," by Henry R. Weinstock and Paul L. Van Horn, 358
"Imperatives in the Junior High and Middle School Dialogue," by Philip Pumerantz, 209
"Improve through Follow-Up," says Steve Bodnarchuk, 30
"Improving the Selection of Course Electives," by R. P. Brimm, 417
Independent study, 21, 94
"Innovating? Involve the Student!" says Richard B. Voege, 543
Innovation: classification of those involved in educational change into pedagogians or anarchists, 527; parental resistance to modular scheduling, 392; staff must be involved in curriculum improvement, 539; students should be involved in educational innovations, 543; why are some faculties more receptive to curricular innovation and change than others, 523
In-Service programs, help keep teachers abreast of emerging curricula and teaching practices, 113
"Inspiration for Creative Writing, An," by William Shulman, 410
"Instructional Media," 63, 126, 190, 254, 319, 382, 447, 511, 567
"Interaction Analysis Improves Classroom Instruction," says Leroy F. Psencik, 555
"Interscholastic Sports—A Balanced Viewpoint," by Joseph S. Kennedy, 471
"Is Content Enough?" asks Mathias Freese, 184
"Is Your PTA Sagging?" asks H. Wayne Quinton and R. Baird Shuman, 307
Ishler, Richard E., says, "Train the Trainer," 240

Jansen, Udo H., on "Grading Practices in Nebraska," 335
Jellen, Mary Lou, "On Throwing Out Ivanhoe," 316
Jennings, Robert B., on "Technical Devices and Student Dehumanization," 17
Jennings, Robert E. (coauthor), on "The School Budget," 458
Jones, Daisy M., gives "A Reading Fable," 39
"Junior College Remedial Program, A," by Richard M. Bossone, 364
Junior high school: factors utilized to bring about flexible scheduling in, 220; instructional leadership should be primary responsibility of principal, 98; an intramural sports program, 52; recognition of different kinds of classroom "noise" aids teaching and learning in the junior high school, 154; should improve its holding power over students and thereby reduce dropouts, 216
"Junior High School Intramural Program, A," by E. W. Nieman, Merl F. Garner, and Gerald Mayer, 52
Juvenile delinquents, treatment of by teachers and administrators, 131

Kane, Paul W., on "VIEW: Vocational Interest Emphasis Week," 473
Kelly, Eugene T. (coauthor), on "Contemporary Concerns for the Secondary School," 387
Kelly, Robert L., on "Ability Grouping in English," 547
Kennedy, Joseph S., on "Interscholastic Sports—A Balanced Viewpoint," 471
Keyes, Erma D. (coauthor), gives "A Guide for Converting Test Scores," 432
Kimble, Raymond L., on "Social Studies: A Case for Honest Reflection," 428
Kindsvatter, Richard, gives "Guidelines for Better Grading," 331
Kinnick, B. Jo, poem, "The Lament of Silas and Julius," 506
Kline, Lloyd W., asks, "Pedagogian or Anarchist?" 527
Knaggs, Grace, gives "Motivation for Mathematics," 553
"Know Your Community in Ten Easy Lessons," by M. Scott Norton, 55
Koch, Joseph H., gives "A Process Oriented Learning Approach to U. S. History," 230
Kolb, Albert (coauthor), on "A School Within a School," 126
Kratz, Robert N., says, "Everyone Has a Sky," 349

Laabs, Charles W., on "The Principal as Supervisor of Instruction," 198
"Lament of Silas and Julius, The," poem by B. Jo Kinnick, 506
Lane, Richard W. (coauthor), on "Dial-a-Math," 26
Langhorst, H. Walter (coauthor), on " 'Hey, That's Me!': A Relevant Course," 203
Language: creating family learning situations where a second language is used, 496; the human dimension in foreign language instruction, 425
"Language Barriers Down," by A. S. Flaumenhaft, 202
Lauterback, William (coauthor), says, "The Sound of Music in the Schools Is Muffled," 244
Lectures, modified for junior and senior high schools, 142
Leep, Albert G. (coauthor), on "Developing More and Better In-Service Programs," 113
Leibert, Robert E., on "Homework and Study Habits," 413
Lesson plans, discussion of, 492
"Let's Ban Driver Education?" by Sydney J. Harris, 62
Libraries: cooperative planning and discussion between librarian and teachers aids students, 93; the media-librarian and an Environmental Learning Center, 14
"Lobby Triumphs, The: Knitting Conquers All," by Lawrence F. Read, 35
"Look at Adolescent Music, A," by Allen H. Frerichs, 435
Lowther, Malcolm A., on "Most and Least Helpful Activities of Supervising Teachers," 40
Loyalty, discussion of from a developmental and historical viewpoint, 283

McCormic, Anna, says, "Preserve Field Trips on Film," 54
McGuigan, Frank E., on "Social Revolution and Sex Education," 421
McNamara, James F. (coauthor), gives "A Guide for Converting Test Scores," 432
Mackin, Tom, on "Shakespeare as TV Critic," 188
Magill, John F., Jr., gives "The 'Course Achievement' Test," 487
Marlowe, John W., on "A Second or Second-Rate Language," 496
Martin, William, on "Respecting the Words of Kids," 380
Mastronardi, Michael G. (coauthor), on "Project: Homespun," 282
Mathematics: business, commerce, and industry help motivate students in mathematics, 553; description of "Dial-a-Math" program—a teacher answers students' questions via telephone, 26
Mayer, Gerald (coauthor), on "A Junior High School Intramural Program," 52
"Meaningful Grade Reporting," by Cecil O. Spray, 338
Media: association exists between students' use of mass media sources for political information and their attitudes of political cynacism, 396; on closed circuit instructional television, 190; description of an electronic environmental learning center, 14; students dehumanized through unwise use of technological and electronic educational devices, 17; use of computers in education, 135
Methodology: modified lecture technique, 142; a process oriented learning approach—establishment of student "contracts," 230; teaching styles improve through use of a video tape system, 126
Meyer, James A., on "Teaming a First Step for Interdisciplinary Teaching," 406
"Middle Class Values—Lower Class Rights," by Philip I. Freedman, 469
Middle school: the administrative role in developing a middle school, 103; list of advantages of, based on questionnaires sent to administrators of middle schools, 530; on providing a good program for students in the middle grades, 209; shifting grade placement, without thoughtful curriculum and program changes, is to be deplored, 354; trend towards, reasons for, benefits of, 86
"Middle School in Practice, The," by Pearl Brod, 530
"Middle School, The—A Different Name or a New Concept?" asks Roy C. Turnbaugh, 86
Miller, Jack E., gives "A Guide for Those Teaching 'Out of Their Fields,' " 213
Miller, Jerome L., editor of "The Humanities Today," 62, 125, 188, 316, 380, 444, 508, 565
Mills, Donald L., gives an "Opening Address," 157
Milstein, Mike M. (coauthor), on "The School Budget," 458
"Modern Approach to Attendance Taking, A," by Grant Hendrickson, 106
"Modified Lecture, The," by Charles K. West, 142
"Modular Scheduling: Some Implications," by Nina M. Cloyd, 300
Moellenberg, Wayne P., asks, "National Assessment: Are We Ready?" 451
Morris, Walter L., on "Summer School—Designed for the Able," 33
"Most and Least Helpful Activities of Supervising Teachers," by Malcolm A. Lowther, 40
"Motivation for Mathematics," by Grace Knaggs, 553
Murray, C. Kenneth (coauthor), on "Strike or Sanction? What Future Teachers Favor," 27

Music: building better music audiences, 497; a look at adolescent music, 435; value of a music program, 244
"Myths in Education," by E. Dale Doak, 288

"Naming Nemesis," poem by Dick Hayman, 112
National assessment, discussion of school evaluation on a national level, 451
"National Assessment: Are We Ready?" asks Wayne P. Moellenberg, 451
National Merit Scholarship, discussion of the procedure followed to determine winners, 500
"National Merit Scholarship—Winner v. Finalist," by Charles M. Wetterer, 500
Negotiations, teacher: benefits gained through collective contract negotiations, 89; need for professional negotiation between school boards and teachers, 358; the role of the superintendent in teacher negotiations, 533; superintendent of schools should be the board of education's chief representative in all collective negotiation procedures, 294
"New Role for Tired Superintendents, A," by Ted R. Urich and S. Samuel Shermis, 294
"Newer Media Education: Problem Solver or Problem Maker?" asks Norman Ward Wilson, 14
"Next Step: A Junior Middle School?" asks Arthur G. Chaves, 354
Niehaus, Stanley W., on "Anatomy of Loyalty," 283
Nieman, E. W. (coauthor), on "A Junior High School Intramural Program," 52
"Noise Is for Learning," says John Reedy, 154
"Non-Degree Holders—What Education Do We Offer Them?" asks Richard E. Stockwell, 10
"Non-Professional Teachers Enliven the Subject Matter," by Jerome Bahr, 494
Norton, M. Scott, on "Know Your Community in Ten Easy Lessons," 55
Nuhn, Dee (coauthor), gives "A Tutoring Program for Underachievers," 236
Nygren, Burton M., on "The 'Teaching' of Discipline," 560

Oestreich, Arthur H., says, "University Research Needs a Planned Corporate Effort," 3
"Of Gizmos and Gadgetry," by Susan M. Hake, 190
"Old Teacher," poem by Norman H. Russell, 311
Olicker, I. I. (coauthor), asks, "How Should Economics Be Taught?" 173
Olson, Carl O., Jr., on "Teaching About Education: A Survey of Current Practices," 67
"On Throwing Out Ivanhoe," by Mary Lou Jellen, 316
"Opening Address," by Donald L. Mills, 157
"Our Living Authors," by Dorothy Wiland Wright, 542
"Oval Table of Eggheads, An," by Theodore T. Toporowski, 327

"Parental Resistance to Modular Scheduling," by Richard A. Gorton, 392
Parrish, Karen (coauthor), asks, "Good Scholarship: Do Students Really Care?" 275
"Pass/Fail at Longmeadow," by James Climo, 341
Patterson, Marvin (coauthor), on "A School Within a School," 126
Payne, Gary L., says, "Teachers Do Not Want Changes," 220
"Pedagogian or Anarchist?" asks Lloyd W. Kline, 527
Peterson, Dennis, says, "Study Hall Problems? Try a Student Lounge!" 139
Phillips, Edward L., asks, "Team Teaching: Where Do We Begin?" 404
Pietrofesa, John J. (coauthor), on "What Is Wrong with Interscholastic Sports," 165
Pine, Gerald J., on "The Existential School Counselor," 351
Planetarium, helps the slow learner improve in science, 349
"Playing the Game in English Teaching," by Kenneth L. Donelson, 479
Plunkett, William T., gives "A Design for Independent Study," 94
"Poem in the Rain," poem by Sister Sonia Gernes, 420
"Policy Formulation: A Plan Involving Teachers," by Sherman H. Frey, 259
"Politics and Youth—Attitudes of Young Americans," by Thomas L. Good and Devon A. Bates, 396
"Predictions of Student Teaching Ratings," by Samuel D. Aven, John Walter, and Marvin Chrisp, 105
"Preserve Field Trips on Film," says Anna McCormic, 54
"Pride of Workmanship," by John R. Dettre, 323
"Principal as Supervisor of Instruction, The," by Charles W. Laabs, 198
"Principal, The: A Machiavellian Guide for School Administrators," by Laurence E. Ely, 519
Principals, see Administrators
"Process Oriented Learning Approach to U. S. History, A," by Joseph H. Koch, 230
Programmed learning: programmed materials used to teach reading, 373; unwise use of technological and electronic educational devices contributes to student dehumanization, 17; see also Computers
"Project: Homespun," by Douglas F. Hurd and Michael G. Mastronardi, 282
"Project Plan," by John C. Flanagan, 63
Psencik, Leroy F., says, "Interaction Analysis Improves Classroom Instruction," 555
Psychology, description of an experimental course for seniors, 203
PTA, improving its effectiveness, 307
Pumerantz, Philip, on "Imperatives in the Junior High and Middle School Dialogue," 209
Purrington, Bruce R., on "Building Better Music Audiences," 497

Quinton, H. Wayne (coauthor), asks, "Is Your PTA Sagging?" 307

Racism, courses dealing with should be mandatory, 195
Read, Lawrence F., on "The Lobby Triumphs: Knitting Conquers All," 35
Reading: description of a reading program using lay aides as instructors and programmed material, 373; descriptions of projects used successfully to encourage adolescents to read, 546; estimating students' reading capacity or potential through test data, 515; fable describes critics and "experts" views of the reading class, 39; is much more than word recognition, 380; suggestions for helping secondary school students read the text, 267; the system of "word attack" helps those with reading problems, 170; underachievers in reading and writing helped by tutors, 236
"Reading Fable, A," by Daisy M. Jones, 39

"Reading Program, A," by Cecil D. Briscoe, 373
"Reading Programs," by Wilbur S. Ames, 515
"Reading to Learn," by Milford O. Holt, 267
Recruitment: inadequacies of in the system of personnel recruitment within school systems, 328; survey of teacher credentials to determine item preferences of recruiters, 474
"Recruitment: Overhauling Archaic Practices," by Raymond J. Yerkovich, 328
Reedy, John, says, "Noise Is for Learning," 154
"Refresher Course for the Methods Prof, A," by Richard Whitworth, 463
Reilley, Robert R., on "Availability and Usefulness of Occupational Materials," 439
"Rejuvenating Current Events," by M. Eugene Gilliom, 206
Research: students in teacher training institutions receive inadequate preparation in statistical methods and research design, 298; universities should emulate large corporation R & D practices, 3
"Research in Name Only," by Robert L. Armstrong, 298
"Respecting the Words of Kids," by William Martin, 380
"Retention Power: Recall Value after One Semester," by John F. Check, 158
Rigdon, E. Keith, asks, "Do Teachers Really Want Freedom?" 102
Roesch, Winston, on "The Teacher as an Author," 73
Rosen, Al (coauthor), on "What Is Wrong with Interscholastic Sports," 165
Rowley, John V. (coauthor), on "School Social Events," 110
Russell, Norman H., poem, "The Faculty Within," 145; poem, "Old Teacher," 311

"Saint or Sorcerer?" poem by Aarno Davidson, 434
Scheduling: description of factors utilized to bring about flexible scheduling, 220; some implications of modular scheduling, 300; parental resistance to modular scheduling, 392
Schilson, Donald L. (coauthor), on "Developing More and Better In-Service Programs," 113
Scholarship, what students think about good scholarship, 275
"School Budget, The," by Robert E. Jennings and Mike M. Milstein, 458
"School Guidance: Perspective, Purpose, and Performance," by LaVerne Carmical, 223
"School Social Events," by John V. Rowley and Justin B. Galford, 110
"School Within a School, A," by Marvin Patterson and Albert Kolb, 126
Schwartz, Sheila, on "Teaching the Humanities," 508
Science, a planetarium helps the slow learner, 349
"Second or Second-Rate Language, A," by John W. Marlowe, 496
Seidman, Earl (coauthor), on "Helping New Teachers Focus on Behavioral Change," 301
"Self-Directed Study," by Robert L. Tripp, 344
Sex education, social revolution in and school responsibility for, 421
"Shadow Study, The," by Edward R. Cuony, 312
"Shakespeare as TV Critic," by Tom Mackin, 188
Sharpes, Donald K., on "Computers in Education," 135
Shaver, James P. (coauthor), gives "A Tutoring Program for Underachievers," 236
Shawver, David E., asks, "Team Teaching: How Successful Is It?" 21
Shermis, S. Samuel, on "Deriving Valid Standards," 254; (coauthor), on "A New Role for Tired Superintendents," 294
Shulman, William, gives "An Inspiration for Creative Writing," 410
Shuman, R. Baird (coauthor), asks, "Is Your PTA Sagging?" 307
"Simple Truth Is . . ., The," by Glenn H. Darling, 395
Small, George R., on "Humanism in Education," 195
Social events, school, guidelines on proper planning of, 110
"Social Revolution and Sex Education," by Frank E. McGuigan, 421
Social studies: description of the "flexible content" approach, 368; methods for teaching about world cultures, 501; study on the extent, organization, and focus of curriculum revisions of the social studies, 248; suggestions for teaching current events, 206; what is the underlying principle that directs man in his social activities, 428
"Social Studies: A Case for Honest Reflection," by Raymond L. Kimble, 428
"Social Studies: How Revisions Occur," by Fred H. Wood, 248
"Social Studies: The Flexible Content Approach," by Brian Callaghan, 368
"Sound of Music in the Schools Is Muffled, The," says John H. Hansen and William Lauterback, 244
"Sounding of Symbols: The Plight of the Unreader," by Frank Wolfe, 170
Southworth, William D., on "The Superintendency in 1980," 79
Sports: description of a junior high school coached, intramural athletic program, 52; an indictment of interscholastic sports, 165; rebuttal to the indictment of interscholastic sports, 471
Spray, Cecil O., on "Meaningful Grade Reporting," 338
"Sputnik: A Decade Later," by Allen H. Frerichs," 568
"Staff Involvement Key to Curriculum Improvement," says Richard G. Telfer, 539
Stevens, Jody L., on "Better Teacher Utilization," 504
Stockwell, Richard E., asks, "Non-Degree Holders—What Education Do We Offer Them?" 10
Streitmatter, Kenneth D., on "Student Study Patterns—A Break from Tradition," 280
"Strike or Sanction? What Future Teachers Favor," by G. Kenneth Murray and Harold W. Collins, 27
Strikes: benefits gained through collective contract negotiations, 89; study comparing attitudes of pre-service and in-service teachers concerning use of strikes or sanctions, 27
Stuckwisch, Harlan, on "The Dropout: Early Adolescent Education," 216
"Student Challenges," by Thomas W. Whiteley, 291
"Student Response to Grouping," by Richard R. Busch, 153
"Student Study Patterns—A Break from Tradition," by Kenneth D. Streitmatter, 280
Student teacher program: description of a program for training superior cooperating teachers who work with student teachers, 240; does the rating a student teacher receives indicate the type of teacher he will be, 105; "micro-teaching"—a supervisory program for helping new teachers, 301; most and least helpful activities of supervising teachers according to student teachers, 40; use of the "shadow study" technique for observing pupil behavior by students in education, 312

Students: able students attend summer school, 33; are "average" students "forgotten"? 32; attitudes toward politics, 396; choose from a variety of study environments, 280; creative, 146; dehumanized through unwise use of technical devices, 17; estimating students' reading capacity or potential through test data, 515; factors influencing college selection, 427; a "leadership poll" determines what students think about good scholarship, 275; outcomes on a study of student retention ability, 158; a part of the intelleltual elite are the "hippies," societal dropouts, 568; a planetarium helps the slow learner improve in science, 349; projects encouraging students to read, 546; on providing a student lounge, 139; response to grouping, 153; the "shadow study" technique used to observe pupil behavior, 312; should be involved in educational changes, 543; should be taught basic test-taking skills, 536; study to find out if students actually feel free to challenge a teacher's teaching, 291; views on homework and their study habits, 413
Study: description of an independent study program for seniors, 94; establishment of a student lounge solves study hall problems,139; a modular schedule allows establishment of a variety of study environments at a senior high school, 280; pupils' views on homework and their study habits, 413; SEDS, a pilot self-directed study program, 344; teacher time involved in small group, large group, and independent study, 21
"Study Hall Problems? Try a Student Lounge!" says Dennis Peterson, 139
Sullivan, John L. (coauthor), on "'Hey, That's Me!': A Relevant Course," 203
Summer school, description of the advantages of an "intensive" summer program, 33
"Summer School—Designed for the Able," by Walter L. Morris, 33
"Superintendency in 1980, The," by William D. Southworth, 79
Superintendents, see Administrators
Swihart, Roy L., on "Teacher Negotiation and the Role of the Superintendent," 533

Teacher aides, see Aides, teacher
"Teacher as an Author, The," by Winston Roesch, 73
"Teacher Credentials: Item Preferences of Recruiters," by Stan Dropkin and Lawrence Castiglione, 474
"Teacher Negotiation and the Role of the Superintendent," by Roy L. Swihart, 533
"Teacher Satisfaction," by Alexander M. Feldvebel, 44
Teachers: anecdote about "the testimonial dinner," 561; benefits gained through collective contract negotiations, 89; can become a teacher-counselor through assignment of student themes in English, 225; a checklist to guide contract signing, 411; classification of educators into pedagogians or anarchists, 527; conditions for coequality between teacher and principal, 488; department heads still determined useful, 264; description of a supervisory technique called "I-B-F Supervision" for changing teacher-behavior, 180; descriptions of the principal's job by teachers, 172; extent of recognition of the teacher as an author, 73; faults of teacher recruitment procedures, 328; guide to lawful disciplinary measures for juvenile delinquents, 131; identifying and working with creative students, 146; improving preparation in statistical methods in post-graduate teacher courses, 298; in-service programs keep teachers abreast of emerging curricula and teaching practices, 113; introduction to, use of, and role in multi-media, 14; is the creative teacher encouraged, 150; junior college teachers should be prepared for remedial work, 364; of music must "sell" need for a music program, 244; must be included in any program of educational change, 220; must be involved in curriculum improvement, 539; need for professional negotiation between school boards and teachers, 358; need to be freed from non-professional duties, 504; a plan involving teachers in policy formulation, 259; presentation of "myths" in education for teacher self-improvement, 288; the role of the superintendent in teacher negotiation, 533; satisfaction with their job, 44; should be able to divorce themselves from "content," 184; study comparing attitudes of pre-service and in-service teachers concerning use of strikes or sanctions, 27; survey of teacher credentials to determine item preferences of recruiters, 474; technical and vocational teachers given a lower status in the educational hierarchy, 10; what kind of freedom do teachers really want, 102; why are some faculties more receptive to innovation and change than others, 523; see also Student teacher program
"Teachers Do Not Want Changes," says Gary L. Payne, 220
Teaching: advantages of teaching an intensive summer school program, 33; answering students' math questions via telephone, 26; applying coaching techniques to classroom instruction, 212; citizenship, 355; classicial mythology, 49; the "course achievement" test replaces the final exam, 487; covering "content" is not enough, 184; current events, 206; democracy, 125; developing "pride of workmanship" in our educational system, 323; discipline—helping students to become self-disciplined, 560; discussion of lesson plans, 492; do students feel free to challenge a teacher's teaching, 291; driver education, 62; economics, 173, 428; education, a course about the U. S. system of, 67; English, 49, 225, 316, 410, 424, 444, 463, 479, 542, 547, 565; a guide for converting test scores, 432; history, 33, 117, 230; how to improve pupil performance in understanding content materials, 413; how to increase learning in a modified lecture situation, 142; humanities, 82, 508; improvement of through interaction analysis, 555; improvement of through use of a video tape system, 126; identifying and working with creative students, 146; language, 425, 496; mathematics, 26, 553; "micro-teaching"—a supervisory program for helping new teachers, 301; music, 244, 435, 497; outcomes on a study of student retention ability, 158; a planetarium helps the slow learner improve in science, 349; a process oriented learning approach—establishment of student "contracts," 230; proper use of leisure time, 98; psychology, 203; reading, 39, 170, 236, 267, 373, 380, 515, 546; recognition of different kinds of classroom "noise" leads to better teaching, 154; a satiric guide for those teaching "out of their fields," 213; science, 349; social studies, 206, 248, 368, 428, 501; student themes enable English teacher to counsel students, 225; unwise use of technological and electronic educational devices contributes to student dehumanization, 17; using newer media in an Environmental Learning Center, 14; utilizing teacher-made tests, teaching students how to take tests, 536; "word attack" system for aiding students with reading problems, 170; world history without textbooks, 117; see also Team teaching and "Tricks of the Trade"

"Teaching About Education: A Survey of Current Practices," by Carl O. Olson, Jr., 67
"'Teaching' of Discipline, The," by Burton M. Nygren, 560
"Teaching the Disadvantaged," by David Cooper, 444
"Teaching the Humanities," by Sheila Schwartz, 508
"Team Planning: Heart Transplant in Teaching," by William Goldstein, 272
Team teaching: advice to the novice team teacher on how to build a team teaching program, 404; discussion of, pro and con, 21; effect of team teaching upon members of the team, 177; essential in teaching a humanities course, 509; examination, pro and con, of the team approach, 401; a first step towards interdisciplinary teaching, 406; positive and negative aspects of team planning, 272
"Team Teaching: How Successful Is It?" asks David E. Shawver, 21
"Team Teaching: Psychological Implications," by Henry R. Fea, 177
"Team Teaching: The Danger and the Promise," by George J. Funaro, 401
"Team Teaching: Where Do We Begin?" asks Edward L. Phillips, 404
"Teaming a First Step for Interdisciplinary Teaching," by James A. Mayer, 406
"Technical Devices and Student Dehumanization," by Robert B. Jennings, 17
Technical education, see Vocational education
Television: on closed circuit instructional television, 190; humorous article on Shakespeare as a TV critic, 188
Telfer, Richard G., says, "Staff Involvement Key to Curriculum Improvement," 539
"Testing, Testing . . 1 . . 2 . . 3," by Chris Buethe, 536
Tests: the "course achievement" test replaces the final exam, 487; a guide for converting test scores, 432; using test data to establish students' reading capacity or potential, 515; utilizing teacher-made tests: pre-tests, post-tests, teaching students how to take tests, 536
"Themes Therapeutic," by Evelyn H. Haught, 225
Thomas, Lois B., on "The Human Dimension in Foreign Language Instruction," 425
Thorum, Reho F., on "The Department Head in the Large Senior High School," 264
Toporowski, Theodore T., on "An Oval Table of Eggheads," 327
"Train the Trainer," by Richard E. Ishler, 240
"Tricks of the Trade," 58, 252
Tripp, Robert L., on "Self-Directed Study," 344
Tucker, Joseph C., asks, "Contract Negotiations: What Benefits Have Been Gained?" 89
Turano, John (coauthor), on "Contemporary Concerns for the Secondary School," 387
Turnbaugh, Roy C., asks, "The Middle School—A Different Name or a New Concept?" 86
"Tutoring Program for Underachievers, A," by James P. Shaver and Dee Nuhn, 236
Tutors, see Aides, teacher
Underachievers, in reading and writing respond to tutors, 236
"Understatements: Arlington Cemetery," poem by Sister Marian Frances Brand, 78
"University Research Needs a Planned Corporate Effort," says Arthur H. Oestreich, 3
Urich, Ted R. (coauthor), on "A New Role for Tired Superintendents," 294
"Utilization of Computing and Data Processing in Education," by John W. Alspaugh, 455

Van Horn, Paul L. (coauthor), on "Impact of Negotiations Upon Public Education," 358
"VIEW: Vocational Interest Emphasis Week," by Paul W. Kane, 473
Vocational Education: lower-status education given to non-college bound students, 10; schools should provide student training for less skilled jobs, 162
"Vocational Education: Secondary School's Underdog?" asks Wilma E. Hirst, 162
Vocational guidance: availability and usefulness of occupational materials, 439; VIEW: Vocational Interest Emphasis Week, a school program designed to help students become more aware of their vocational goals, 473
Voege, Richard B., says, "Innovating? Involve the Student!" 543

Wagner, Hilmar, on "Fostering Classroom Creativity," 146
Walter, John (coauthor), gives "Predictions of Student Teaching Ratings," 105
Walter, Nina Willis, poem, "Word Fancies," 57
Weimer, Karl J., on "Citizenship Education," 355
Weinstock, Henry R. (coauthor), on "Impact of Negotiations Upon Public Education," 358
Weisgerber, Robert A., editor of "Instructional Media," 63, 126, 190, 254, 319, 382, 447, 511, 567
Weldy, Gilbert R. (coauthor), asks, "Good Scholarship: Do Students Really Care?" 275
West, Charles K., on "The Modified Lecture," 142
Wetterer, Charles M., on "National Merit Scholarship—Winner v. Finalist," 500
"What Is Wrong with Interscholastic Sports," by John J. Pietrofesa and Al Rosen, 165
Whitely, Thomas W., on "Student Challenges," 291
Whitworth, Richard, on "A Refresher Course for the Methods Prof," 463
Wilson, Norman Ward, asks, "Newer Media Education: Problem Solver or Problem Maker?" 14
Wilson, Paul, on "World Cultures: A Matter of Method," 501
Wolfe, Frank, on "Sounding of Symbols: The Plight of the Unreader," 170
Wolfson, Joseph (coauthor), asks, "How Should Economics Be Taught?" 173
Wood, Fred H., on "Social Studies: How Revisions Occur," 248
"Word Fancies," poem by Nina Willis Walter, 57
"Words: An On-Going Program," by Hazel Cohen, 424
"World Beyond the Classroom," by George Bauer, 371
"World Cultures: A Matter of Method," by Paul Wilson, 501
"World History: Are Textbooks Needed?" asks Robert J. Barnard, 117
Wright, Dorothy Wiland, on "Our Living Authors," 542

Yerkovich, Raymond J., on "Recruitment: Overhauling Archaic Practices," 328